

And They Are Us is the latest collaborative effort of visual artist /producer Dustin DeMilio (aka Dust Magnet) & guitarist Christopher Schreiner (aka Drop.Kick.Pop).

The sound spans a range from brooding, dark grooves, to break beats, accompanied by appropriately incendiary guitar work. The duo touches on genres from jungle, to hard house, to trance without staying long enough to suggest a preference for one or the other.

Live performances feature a similarly dynamic range of video and images that reflect the texture of their glitchy, undulating, and often explosive sound.

And They Are Us is a mind-bending audio/visual experience!
